DESERT ROADS MAPPED FOR AUTO DRIVERS

AUTOMOBILE CLUB OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA DISTRIBUTING VALUABLE MAPS.

The Automobile Club of Southern California has started the distribution of its newest desert map.

The information contained in the map will encourage automobile travel through the great Death Valley country, which offers scenic attractions found in no other place in the country.

All the highways of the desert of San Bernardino and Inyo counties, and a portion of Nevada, are charted on the new map.

The two routes to Nevada are marked. One goes north from Daguerre via Saratoga Springs, Pahump and Fairbank ranch to Beatty and thence to Goldfield and Tonopah.

The other is north from Barstow via Bal-larat, Rhyolite to Beatty, where it joins with the other highway and continues on to Tonopah.

The third north and south route is from Los Angeles due north to Mojave, thence through Indian Wells, Independence to Big Pine, with a branch to Bishop and on to Tulare and Reno, and another to Tonopah.

This highway is connected at Mojave with the Mojave-Needles road, which in turn is on both the other north and south highways.

PITTMAN AND NEWLANDS LINE UP IN BEHALF OF GREAT HETCH-HETCHY GRAB

The San Francisco Chronicle prints on its first page, with a flourish of bells and trumpets, the fact that Nevada's two United States senators, Newlands and Pittman, are active in the interests of the Hetch Hetchy project.

California's own Senator Works opposes the deal and is emphatically outspoken against the scheme! So California comes, hat in hand, to her sister state of Nevada and borrows those two senators, Newlands and Pittman, for legislative purposes of the Golden state.

The Chronicle, with great glee, shouts that while Senator Works of California is against the bill, yet our own Senator Pittman of Nevada has espoused the cause of Hetch Hetchy and that at the proper time Newlands will come trailing along and support the measure.

In effect, the fight for and against Hetch Hetchy resolves itself into a fight between the state of California and the city of San Francisco, which wants to loot the Hetch Hetchy for its own selfish purposes.

There is a great howl from other Californians against this beautiful valley being turned over to the power and water grabbers. Senator Works has his ear to the ground, knows the feelings of the Californians as a whole, and is therefore opposed to Hetch Hetchy for at least political reasons.

Over in Nevada there are two United States senators, Newlands and Pittman, who appear always ready to look after California's legislation whenever that particular state needs a helping hand.

Hetch Hetchy is the most shining example of Nevada's senators' activity in California legislation. There are many things which Nevada needs done at Washington, but Pittman and Newlands are too busy with their California legislation to look after anything concerning Nevada.

Anyhow, what does Nevada amount to, anyway, except around election time? Newlands spends most of his time in San Francisco when he comes west. He has no use for Nevada, only for what he can get out of her in a political way.

He is neither a representative of Nevada nor a resident thereof. He is from and for California, first, last and all the time; Nevada secondarily. This same statement is equally true, or more so true, of Pittman.

The time was when Nevada senators did not father California legislation for the glory there was in it, and people now demand that such a state of affairs come to an end. Why Pittman should jump in and lead San Francisco's battle to grab Hetch Hetchy is not explained, except, of course, his great love for California in general. "Me-Too" Newlands' motives are unknown.

The people are crying out that Pittman and Newlands stop legislating for California and attend strictly to the affairs of Nevada. There is more than enough legislation and other matters from Nevada to take up the entire time of Pittman and Newlands and it is about time they got

BOOKSHOPS WIN VICTORY.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Cut-rate dealers in copyrighted books won a victory today when the supreme court held that agreements between publishers and regular booksellers not to sell books to those who re-sell to the public at less than the price fixed by the publishers violate the Sherman anti-trust law.

ELKO, DEC. 3.—AFTER JANUARY 1 THE TOWN OF LAMOILLE WILL BE A "DRY" TOWN, AS THE ELKO COMMISSIONERS REFUSED TO GRANT ANY APPLICATIONS FOR LIQUOR LICENSES.
